

1. Title:

Ocean of love

2. Introduction:

Describes my relationship with my daughter.

3. Principles and concepts:

The background is blue ocean, because it is inclusive, romantic and soft. The daughter uses a mermaid to express, using pink, purple, and green to represent freedom, cuteness, and hope. Interspersed with the story: During pregnancy, I pray that my daughter will be born healthy. She laughed when she had two baby teeth. Hold your daughter in your palm. I hope she grows up happily. In the eyes of her daughter, she hopes to interact with her parents. My husband and I are part of the world in my daughter's eyes, blurred in the sea, with a jellyfish on our face, representing romance, carefree, and loving life. In the whole picture, the picture of the daughter is wide, because the daughter is our world. In fact, my daughter brings us more happiness.

4. Process/method:

first paste the paper on the wooden board, and wait for it to dry. Match the basic colors and add a few drops of silicone oil. Layers of colors are superimposed on the small cup, pour it on the paper, shake the board, adjust the texture, and then use the musket stick to burn the color to make more texture appear. According to the desired picture, wait for it over and over again, and then add color. Finally, draw and adjust the picture.

5. Materials/Technology

Material: rice paper, wood board, paste, acrylic, musket.

Technique: Acrylic fluid painting

6. Results/Conclusion

Because I am now separated from my daughter and husband. This painting eased my longing. I am very happy and satisfied. In the painting, I saw my daughter's favorite dolphins, her favorite turbot, squid, and octopus. In this creation, you will see what you think in your mind.
