

Peace of Sukhothai

Peace of Sukhothai has an aim to bring the way to extinguish the chaos in the heart in my own format compromise with the way to reach the peace in Sukhothai era with the combination of the past and the present. This cause the peace among the chaotic environment in the present day under the words "Advanced but Restless" which can be said that the progressing of the world at this period has been increasing but the peace in human's hearts are decreasing and causing the strain.

Because of this reason, this jewelry will become a representative of healing mentality of myself which come from the researching of Sukhothai Arts by bringing out it's the element combine with myself manage chaos to design and create.

The technique that have been using in this work is pulling pure silver wires. Moreover, doing the press forming to create the figure. Besides this jewelry shows the outcome of my work and analyzing my identity, it also shows the Sukhothai art and creates something new which is jewelry and sculpture.
