

Sustainability Action: NO AIR “ I say “There was not a breath of air. Human activity is a major cause of the air pollution that the world is facing today. Until it affects nature such as forest fires, air pollution and Solid waste. The image is composed in a small circular area, as it represents what humans perceive as mere trivial matter. Pastel colors are typically described using adjectives like “soft,” “washed out,” “pale,” “muted,” and “light.”The above-mentioned article is according to the Satirical Art of Dadaism.