

Harmony of cuisine

In the diversity world, people connect to each other by food from their different cultures. Becoming the harmony of cuisine

Concept

This work is inspired from various food from different culture mainly Thai and western styles. Food are an important aspect in our life. We become what we eaten

Process

I thought out the way to convey this messages by putting food from different culture on the same plate to show the contrast and its harmony.

Materials

Watercolour illustration and adobe illustrate

Conclusion

This work shows my ideas of food with different cultures.
